SOCIAL LEARNING

Social and learning disabilities, specific learning disabilities, or emotional and/or social difficulties ages 5 to 21

Our social learning campuses serve students 5 to 21 years of age with social learning disabilities such as autism spectrum disorders, ADHD, specific learning disabilities, emotional or social disabilities, and anxiety disorders. Our “school-within-a-school” campuses located within public school buildings allow students the opportunity to interact with typical peers. All campuses offer transition planning and support, community-based instruction, regular workshops and parent trainings, related services and an extended school year program.

“ I am thrilled with the high quality academic program at Y.A.L.E. School, including the small class sizes, the individualized instruction and the well-balanced curriculum. But what really distinguishes Y.A.L.E. School is the exemplary teachers. Without exception, the teachers at Y.A.L.E. School are among the very best teachers any of my four children have ever had.”

ADMISSIONS

Students who attend Y.A.L.E. School are eligible under federal law for special education and related services. The decision to send a particular student to Y.A.L.E. School is made by the child's Individualized Education Program (IEP) team. Private tours of a Y.A.L.E. campus can be scheduled with an admissions coordinator by request. In most cases, the child's local school district pays tuition and transportation costs, at no cost to the parents. Y.A.L.E. School does accept private pay in a small number of cases.
